A- PRESENTATION FOR SHOWING

PUREBRED

1. The permissible method of presentation for showing the registered purebred Gypsy Cob is in a natural condition as long as the Cob is neat, healthy and well presented. Mane and tail must be natural and free flowing in in-hand and ridden showing events.
2. Manes and tails may be plaited in jumping, obstacle, and driving events
3. It is permissible to remove the mane hair from behind the poll but this must be no more than an ears length. The bottom edge of the tail may be trimmed clear of the ground, the body may be clipped and the beard may be trimmed.

4. Alteration of the natural colour of the coat is not permitted. However, the use of dye to return a sun bleached mane and/or tail to its natural colour, is allowed.

PARTBRED

1. Plaiting, clipping, hogging, makeup and false tails are permitted in all classes for partbreds. Some feathering on the legs should be visible, unless clipped.

2. Alteration of the natural colour of the coat is not permitted. However, the use of dye to return a sun bleached mane and/or tail to its natural colour, is allowed.

B-ELIGIBILITY FOR SHOWING

1. Shows will be open to any horse registered with NZGCA, whose exhibitor is able to prove valid current registration. To enter a show the exhibitor must use the complete name and number of the animal as it is shown on the horse's registration certificate. Substitutions or changes are acceptable where the Show Management deems this appropriate.

2. Horses may be shown if the exhibitor furnishes proof that the registration application and DNA has been received at the office of the Registrar with all requirements met prior to the show. Show Management shall accept as proof a "show approval letter" from the registrar. The Registrar can also give verbal verification to the Show Manager, that the horse can be shown.

3. Where a horse is leased, notice of lease must have been received at the office of the Registrar with all requirements having been met at the time of entry to the show.

4. All horses entered in RAS affiliated or NZGCA shows must be owned by an NZGCA member. Non-members may show a registered horse on behalf of the owner.

5. The NZGCA may hold a North Island and South Island Championship show. These shows are open to registered horses both pure and part bred and only current financial members only.

6. The show age of all horses is determined from the 1st of August preceding its birthday. On the 1st of August following its birth the horse is deemed to be a yearling with the following exception:

7. If the horse is less than 31 days old on August 1st AND provided that the NZGCA Registrar is satisfied that the foal was born to a mare whose first breeding date was on or after 1st September, the horse will be deemed to have been born on August 1st for registration and all other purposes and will record a birth date of 1st August.

C-HANDLERS

Note: The age of handlers for all purposes including stallion-handling shall be taken as at 1 August of the current show season.

1. Handlers 8yrs and under may have an adult supervisor in the arena without penalty. The adult supervisor must have an additional (separate) lead rein attached to the In-hand at all times.

Note: - Handlers under the specified minimum age may compete in these classes
NZGCA: Breed standard and show rules. July 2019.

WITH an adult supervisor (as above) without penalty.

2. Special Considerations for Stallions:

- No Youth may show at In-hand, ride or drive, or be left in charge of a stallion on the show grounds.
- NO Youth 12 years and under may show or handle on the show grounds a stallion other than a current season colt foal.
- NO Youth 13 years and over but less than 16 years may show a stallion other than a weanling or yearling colt.

Note: All ages for youth is at the 1st August of the current show season.

D-JUDGES

1. Where possible, all Gypsy Cob events will be judged by a recognised or accredited Cob judge.
2. Prospective judges may be nominated by any member, whereby the judge will be invited to actively learn about the Gypsy Cob as a distinct and identifiable breed. Any judges hired to judge a Show or class are required to acquaint themselves with the breed standards and official show rules, and are expected to comply with those rules.
3. It is considered inappropriate for a judge to attend a show, exhibitor's party, or any other activity connected with a show on the day previous to the show at which he/she is officiating, where that party or activity may cause the said judge to have contact with a breeder, owner, or exhibitor of a horse entered in the following days show.
4. It is considered inappropriate for a judge to visit any stall area, or speak with owners, trainers, exhibitors or owners, representatives, or inspect or discuss any horses entered in the show before judging has been completed.
5. Some explanation as to the placement of the horse may be sought of the judge through the steward by making an appointment for AFTER the conclusion of the show.
6. No horse may be shown before a judge that has been sold by the said judge or by his/her employer, within a period of one year prior to the show. No horse may be shown before a judge that has been trained by the said judge within 90 days prior to the show. No horse owned by the family members of the judge may be shown, and family members of the judge are ineligible to be exhibitors at that show. For the purpose of this rule "training" shall be deemed to include any form of continuous, repeated or regular activity designed to bring the animal to a desired condition.
7. Judges are to be named on Show Schedules and Catalogues of Entries where possible.
8. Judges are not permitted to touch any horse at any time other than when fixing the ribbon.

E-STEWARDS AND OFFICIALS

1. Any reputable person may act in the capacity of ring steward. The ring steward(s) must help the judge, not advise him/her. The steward must carefully refrain from discussing, or seeming to discuss, any horses or exhibitors with the judge.
2. Safety Officer – Each show should have Safety Officers appointed and listed on the NZGCA: Breed standard and show rules. July 2019.

Schedule / Catalogue.

3. Catalogues and Entry Forms. The Entry Forms must include a declaration for the owner, trainer, handler and/or exhibitor to sign agreeing to these rules
4. The owner, trainer, handler and exhibitor are responsible for a horses condition and must be familiar with the regulations concerning prohibited substances including the Prohibited Substance List as per RAS rules.

F-MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Any horse showing evidence of the use of ginger or other irritants to produce higher tail carriage shall be disqualified.
2. Switches, and high spoon cruppers are prohibited.
3. No horse having surgery for purely cosmetic purposes will be permitted to show. Similarly, no horse having had surgery to correct faults will be permitted to show.

G-RING PROCEDURE

1. Dress - It is a tradition of the show ring that all handlers be correctly attired for the class. Management may bar any entry or person from entering the ring if not suitably attired to appear before an audience. Hacking, English or western style turnout is allowed, as are quality dress-blue jeans when worn in combinations with the following plain short or long-sleeved blouse (with collar) or a plain short or long sleeved shirt. Alternative dress would allow for smart trousers, or skirts that finish below the knee. Ties, hats and jackets are to be worn at the discretion of the exhibitor. Suitable footwear is a necessity for all classes - only boots or closed in flat shoes are allowed
2. At all times the exhibitor must be aware that both horse and handler are on display, and hence present themselves in a neat, appropriate manner in order to promote the breed and Association in an appealing and proper way.
3. All exhibits including foals, should be led and shown throughout an entire class by the same person. Should additional handlers be required due to physical limitations or emergencies, the ring steward must be notified. At no time will handlers let any horse stand unattended except when the class calls for it.
4. Exhibitors will be issued a number for each horse to be displayed on the back, the arm of the handler or on the horse if required . The number will stand for the entire show.
5. Conduct designed to distract any horse, or otherwise interfere with the showing of an other exhibitors horse, will not be tolerated. Exhibitors must take care to ensure that actions intended to make their horses show can not be deemed to be distracting to other exhibitors/exhibits. Offenders will be asked to leave the show area. If the offender is an exhibitor, he/she may be excused from the ring and barred from the show area for the duration of the show. His/her horses however, may still compete.
6. An unruly horse may be excused from the ring by the judge or ring steward for safety reasons.
7. Cruelty, abuse, or inhumane treatment of any horse in the show ring, stable area or elsewhere on the show grounds whether the horse is entered or not will not be tolerated by show management, and the offender and their exhibits may be barred from the show area for the duration of the show.

8. Conduct by an exhibitor, trainer, owner, or immediate family member, of an unsportsmanlike, abusive, or detrimental nature will not be tolerated by the Show Management; including, but not limited to, threatening, abusive, or intimidating conduct (physical, verbal, or written) toward any show official or fellow exhibitor. Any person(s) guilty of such conduct should be reported immediately to Show Management. The Show Management must suspend the offender for the duration of that show. The Show Management must notify the Council of the Association in writing within seven (7) days of the offence. Any person accused of such unseemly behaviour may appeal his/her case to the Council of the Association, which shall render a decision. If found guilty such a person may be banned from further participation in New Zealand Gypsy Cob Association activities for such time as NZGCA Committee may decide. The decision will be published in the official publication of the Association.

9. Exhibitors and/or owners and/or trainers may not protest to the judge directly, or by interference, the placing of any horse. Any person(s) guilty of such conduct will be excused from the ring and forfeit any awards received at that show and the right to show in any additional classes at that show. No entry fees will be refunded.

10. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to present the horse to the gate in time for judging. If the gate is required to be held for any foreseeable reason (e.g. changing equipment), the Gate Steward must be notified at least two classes in advance that a In-hand Break is required. The length of time given for the "In-hand Break" will be limited at the discretion of the Gate Steward. If a horse is to be scratched from a class the Gate Steward must be notified prior to the start of the class.

11. Show Management may reserve the right to combine or cancel classes, as required, where lack of entries warrants it. Show Management may reserve the right to subdivide classes where large entries warrant it.

12. At all times the competition arena and collecting area shall be kept clear of ALL miscellaneous equipment not required for the judging of the class in progress.

13. Horse's names may be called out when receiving ribbons/prizes.
